Description: A professional organization of those involved in the continuing education-formation of clergy in the Catholic Church. Dioceses and religious communities in the U.S. are full members. Institutions and organizations which are concerned with continuing education-formation of clergy are affiliate members. Dioceses and provinces outside the U.S. may also be affiliate members.
NOCERCC was founded in 1973 through the efforts of the National Federation of Priests Councils. It is governed by a Board of Directors which involves a president selected by the membership, elected representatives from the 13 NCCB Regions and 2 elected religious representatives. Its services include bi-monthly NewsNotes, Resource publications, an Annual Convention, training for new and experienced directors, regional meetings, consultations and service to regional and interdiocesan programs.
